Ryan Appointed Chairman Of Chemical Progress Week

Dan W. Ryan, of Dow Chemical company, has been appointed Torrance chairman for Chemical Progress Week, which will be observed nationally April 23-28.

He will coordinate local activities with Raymond L. Geller, president of A. R. Maas Chemical company of South Gate, who has been named California state chairman, and Floyd J. Gunn, of Dow, Southern California chairman.

Ryan said that more than 100 chemical manufacturing companies throughout the state are expected to participate in the program which is designed to bring about a better public understanding of chemistry and the chemical industry.

He said "A Better America through Chemical Progress" is the theme of the program which will emphasize the role of chemical technology in raising the American standard of living during the past 25 years. In addition to pointing out the many benefits enjoyed by every individual through chemistry, the program will include special activities in secondary schools and colleges in an effort to interest young people in careers in chemistry.

Ryan pointed out that chemicals and allied products now rank fourth in total assets among the nation's manufacturing industries and fifth in total sales.

"California is eighth in the nation in chemical manufacturing," he said. "Since 1947 there has been a 29 per cent increase in the number of chemical plants in the state, and a 25 per cent increase in the number of employees."

Congressional Post Sought By Franklin

Following his recent endorsement by the Republican Party's Fact Finding Committee, Charles A. Franklin last week filed with the Registrar of Voters, Benjamin Hite, for the office of Congressman in the 17th District.

Although he cross-filed on the Democratic ticket, Franklin emphasized that he was "violently opposed to the principle of cross-filing. It had been my original intention to file only on the Republican ticket," Franklin told newsmen, "and at first I picked up only Republican papers. However, I later discovered that my opponent was cross-filing and I, therefore, had no choice but to file on the Democratic ticket also.

"Cross-filing tends to shroud a candidate's political affiliation in mystery," he continued, "and is thus bad since it might mislead the voter. We, as Republicans, have nothing to be ashamed of, and I have no intention of hiding my affiliation."

Franklin, a 29-year old insurance broker, currently lives at 5445 West Eighty-seventh street in Westchester. He is the father of 3 daughters, all under the age of four. A graduate mechanical engineer, Franklin has also received a diploma from the USC School of Law.
